

Chad Adams Appointed to Graduate School of Banking at Colorado Board of Trustees

The Graduate School of Banking at Colorado (GSBC), along with the Nebraska Bankers Association, is pleased to announce the appointment of Chad Adams to the GSBC Board of Trustees. Chad is the President of Adams Bank & Trust in Ogallala, Nebraska.

Chad began working with Adams Bank & Trust in September of 1986. He now serves as the President and also serves in the capacities of Director and Legal Counsel. In addition to the positions he holds with Adams Bank & Trust, he is the President of Western Insurors, one of the largest independent insurance agencies in Nebraska. Chad is a member of the Nebraska Bar and is a non-practicing Certified Public Accountant. He also serves as a financial advisor for Raymond James Financial Services.

Chad's previous employment history includes positions held with The Nebraska Department of Banking & Finance, and Coopers & Lybrand. In addition, he served as a Captain in the U.S. Army Reserve from 1981 to 1989.

Chad graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1981 with a B.S. in Business Administration and Accounting. He received his J.D. from the University of Nebraska in May of 1984 and graduated from the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado in 1991.

Chad is married with 4 children. He follows the Nebraska Athletics (high school and college) and has a son that competes for the University of Nebraska on the Cross Country and Track teams. His other activities include serving as an Assistant Scout Master, a Board Member to the Keith County Hospital Association, and a Treasurer for the Nebraska Water Center Foundation. He is a private pilot and likes to fly, fish, and hunt in his spare time.
