The Graduate School of Banking at Colorado is pleased to announce Dennis Hadley has been named Chairman of the Board for the 2009-2010 term. Hadley is EVP of Denison State Bank in Holton, Kansas. He has served on the Board since 2006 and is a 2000 graduate of GSBC.

In addition to his dedication to community banker education at GSBC, Hadley is actively involved with the Kansas Bankers Association and the KS/NE Schools of Banking. He serves on the Schools of Banking Lending Advisory Committee and volunteers time at the various schools. He is also a popular instructor for some of the various KS educational banking programs. Hadley and his wife, Teresa, reside in Holton.

The Board of Trustees are looking forward to Dennis' leadership, including President, Tim Koch, who stated, Dennis is a long-time banker who understands the regulatory and operational issues facing community banks. He is customer focused and an excellent strategic thinker. As a graduate of GSBC, he is also a strong proponent of banker education and has served as an instructor for the Kansas Bankers Association. He will be an outstanding proponent of GSBC's mission to serve community banks.

GSBC provides professional development and training for community bankers preparing for senior-level management positions. Founded in 1950, GSBC has educated almost 7,000 bankers across the nation. The school will celebrate its 60th Annual School Session July 11-23, 2010 on the University of Colorado campus in Boulder, Colorado.
