

Susan Zubradt Appointed as Advisor to the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado Board of Trustees

The Graduate School of Banking at Colorado (GSBC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Susan Zubradt, Vice President at the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, to the GSBC Board of Trustees.

Currently, Susan has responsibility for a number of functions in the Supervision & Risk Management Division including Applications, Credit & Risk Management, Enforcement, Statistics, and Staff Development. She began her career in 1982 as a commercial bank examiner at the Denver branch of the Reserve Bank and became a member of the official staff in 1998. Since then she has held official staff positions overseeing various bank supervision functions in Kansas City.

Susan received her B.A. degree in Accounting and Business Administration from Benedictine College, Atchison, Kansas in 1982 and an M.B.A. from Rockhurst College, Kansas City, Missouri in 1990. She is also a graduate of the Wisconsin Graduate School of Banking.

Susan is originally from Bendena, Kansas and currently lives in Lenexa, Kansas with her husband Doug and two children, Madison and Mitchell.

The Graduate School of Banking at Colorado will host its 61st Annual School Session July 10-22, 2011 on the University of Colorado campus in Boulder, Colorado.

Everyone is looking forward to Susan's participation, including Mick Thompson, Oklahoma State Banking Commissioner who stated, "Susan is a strong advocate of examiner education and supportive of the Federal Reserve Bank's efforts to send employees to the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado. Susan's role reaches a wide range of bankers and examiners on a regional and national level. She also serves as a Trustee at Rockhurst College. She will provide a valuable perspective to the Board, especially in the current economic and regulatory environment."

For more information, please visit www.GSBColorado.org.